FINDINGS AND ORDER TO ANSWER FOLLOWING REMAND
BY THE SIXTH CIRCUIT COURT OF APPEALS (DOC. 23, 24)

The court conducted a hearing this date following remand from the Sixth Circuit Court of Appeals and a mandate issued November 24, 2009. The plaintiff and claimant agreed that the facts pertinent to the issues identified by the Court of Appeals are undisputed. The Court heard argument by both sides and based upon the reasons stated on the record, concludes as follows:

1) The United States Secret Service received claimant's administrative claim on February 22, 2007, and as a matter of law, her claim shall be considered "filed" for purposes of 18 USC § 983(c)(3)(A) on that date,

2) The government filed its complaint untimely, ninety-two days after the claim was filed, and,

3) The government has shown good, sufficient cause to excuse its two day delay in filing the complaint in this case.

4) The court finds that Supplemental Rule G applies generally to this forfeiture action in rem, and only to the extent Rule G does not address an issue will Supplemental Rules C and E and the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure also apply.

Claimant shall answer the government's complaint on or before June 22, 2010, and comply with the scheduling order also entered this date.

IT IS SO ORDERED.

Dated: April 22, 2010
